Framework for people with Speech Language and Communication Needs

The report is nearly finished. It will first be shown to the people who have shared their experiences. The final report will now be published in July.

Discrimination legislation

The Tribunal

The advert asking people if they wanted to be on the Tribunal was very successful.

A meeting will take place in June to select the people for the Tribunal.

The people who are chosen will be trained later this year.

Training about the new Law

It will be important that everyone understands what the new Discrimination Law means.

The training about the Law is being planned.

The training will take place in 2022.

Information and News

Aviramps

Guernsey airport has bought two aviramps.

They will help people to get on and off the planes.

This will especially help people who cannot walk a long way and those who cannot get up and down steps easily.

Multiple Sclerosis (MS) awareness week

A series of videos were made.

These explained what MS is and what support is available for people with MS.

Jamie and Ryan told their stories about living with MS.

Dementia awareness week

A series of videos were made.

The videos talked about how art, craft and music can help people with dementia.

Julie talked about the tovertafel, the magic table.

Jo told us about memory boxes.

Brigette and Kirsten showed us the Guernsey artwork on the hospital wards.

Education

A review has been done to look at education for people who have special needs or a disability.

The report has 18 recommendations.

The report advises that some of the changes should be made soon, but that some might take a bit longer.

Global Accessibility Awareness Day

A breakfast meeting was held.

Different people attended to talk about how important it is to make it easier for everyone to use digital devices.
